2012 Contest Rules:

- Only official contest music will be used. Contest music is provided through the link on the website.
- There may be only One Choreographer between the ages of 15yrs and 18yrs. There may be up to Three Dancers on stage performing, dancers may be between the ages of 14yrs-18yrs.
- The choreographer may be one of the dancers on stage performing however it is not required. There is only one award for the choreographer of the routine; dancers are not eligible for awards in this contest.
- The choreographer may perform in his/her own piece however they may not perform for another choreographers piece, in addition dancers may not perform in more than one choreographers work. Each dancer may appear on stage during this contest only once and may only enter at one city.
- Contest will be judged on innovative choreography not on skill level. Choreography must be original and appropriate in nature. Studios must be aware that the contestant is participating. A teacher signature is required before registrations will be accepted.
- Registrations will not be processed without a $50 registration deposit and are first come first serve until full. Participants will not be billed for the deposit unless they do not attend their reservation, no refunds will be issued.
- Contest participants are responsible for obtaining their call time from the website closer to the date of the event; participants will not be contacted individually.
- The top candidates selected by the judges will be invited to perform in the Synergy Showdown finals at the end of each event. The winner of these candidates will receive a Synergy Scholarship. At the end of the season when winners from each city have been selected the candidates will be posted to the website and voting will open to the public. A combination of the Public's Vote (25%) and Judges Vote (75%) will determine the emerging choreographers contest winner for 2012.
